Every year it is important that you review the requirements for operating your 401(k) retirement plan. Use this checklist to help you keep your plan in compliance with many of the important rules. Click on "(More)" in any of the following questions for additional information (including examples) on how to find, fix, and avoid each mistake. See www.irs.gov/ep for online versions of the checklists, Fix-It Guides, and other resources for 401(k) and other plan types.

1. Has your plan document been updated within the past few years? If your plan has not been updated to reflect recent law changes, the plan needs to be revised. (More)	No	6. Were all eligible employees Yes No identified and given the opportunity to make an elective deferral election? By supplying your tax advisor with information regarding all employees who receive a Form W-2, you may reduce the risk of omitting eligible employees.
2. Are the plan's operations based on the terms of the plan document? Failure to follow the terms of the plan is a common problem encountered on audit. (More)	No	7. Are elective deferrals limited to the amounts under IRC §402(g) for the calendar year?
3. Is the plan's definition of Yes compensation for all deferrals and allocations used correctly?	No	Failure to distribute deferrals in excess of the 402(g) limit may result in additional taxes and penalties to the participant and employer. (More)
Because your plan may use different definitions of compensation for different purposes, it's important that you apply the proper definition according to your plan document. (More)	:	8. Have you timely deposited employee elective deferrals? You should deposit deferrals as soon as they can be segregated from the employer's assets. (More)
4. Were employer matching Yes contributions made to all appropriate employees under the terms of the plan? The terms of the plan must be followed when allocating employer matching contributions. (More)		9. Do participant loans conform to the requirements of the plan document and IRC §72(p)? Defaulted loans or loans in violation of IRC §72(p) may be treated as a taxable distribution to the participant.
5. Has the plan satisfied the 401(k) Yes nondiscrimination tests (ADP and ACP)? Every 401(k) plan must satisfy yearly ADP/ACP nondiscr nation tests except for certain auto enrollment and 401(safe harbor plans. (More)	imi-	10. Were hardship distributions Yes No made properly? If a plan allows hardship distributions, the terms of the plan must be followed. (More)

If you answered "No" to any of the above questions, you may have made a mistake in the operation of your 401(k) plan. This list is only a guide to a more compliant plan, so answering "Yes" to each question may not mean your plan is 100% compliant. Many mistakes can be corrected easily, without penalty and without notifying the IRS.
